

1994 CENTENARY BASEBALL MEDIA GUIDE

USHERING OUT THE OLD WITH THE NEW

1994 GENT OUTLOOK

TALENTED RETURNEES AND NEW FACES WILL MAKE CENTENARY GENT BASEBALL EXCITING TO WATCH IN 1994

Six, twelve and one...No, that's not the prediction for the 1994 Gent season. That is the number of starters, letterwinners, and head coaches the Centenary Baseball team lost after last year's 27-25 season in which the Gents finished second in the Trans America Athletic Conference Tournament for the second straight year.

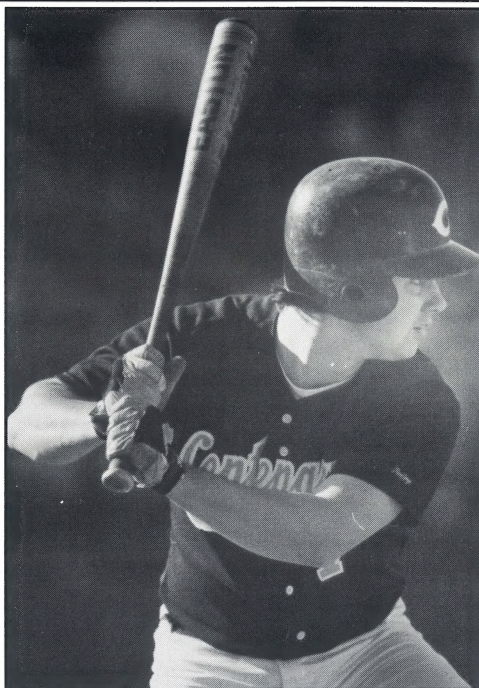

Among the six starters gone are left-handed pitcher Tom Schneider and first baseman Brett McCabe who combined to lead the 1993 Gents both defensively and offensively. Schneider, a 16th round draft pick by the Montreal Expos this past summer, led the team with 87 strikeouts and was only eight short of the school single-season record of 95 set in 1963. McCabe also left for the big leagues after being drafted in the 61st round by the Chicago Cubs. His .343 batting average led the team and was ninth in the TAAC. The Gents lost one of their leading power-hitters in Jason Parker who led the team with 15 homeruns last season.

After losing players like that, combined with a tough NCAA Division I schedule, you would think the outlook would be pretty bleak; however, with an energetic first year head coach, a proven nucleus of veterans and a fresh group of newcomers, it is easy to see why optimism is running high on the 1994 Centenary Gents baseball team.

First year Centenary Head Baseball Coach Wayne Rathbun returns to his alma mater to begin the rebuilding process. Most coaches would believe that losing so many experienced players would make a successful season unlikely, but Rathbun believes that the combination of the Gent veterans with the newcomers has the ability to win Centenary's first TAAC title and advance to the NCAA Tournament.

"There's no question that this is an entirely different Centenary team from last year, but that does not mean that we cannot be as, if not, more successful than we were in 1993," says Rathbun.

PITCHING: The Gents were hurt here, losing four hurlers who combined for Senior DH Darren Rounsaville earned All-TAAC honors last season and provided some clutch-hitting in the Gents 5-4 extra-inning victory over Stetson in the opening round of the conference tourney.

14 of the Gents' 27 victories last season. Senior lefty Tyler Ginn (1-3, 9.23 ERA) and junior right-hander Carter Maw (7-5, 5.10 ERA) will lead the Gent staff into the 1994 season. Ginn went through a difficult season in 1993 collecting only one win. Still, the southpaw managed to record 18 strikeouts in 26.1 innings pitched and will be leader of the Gent staff having played all four years at Centenary. Maw, a transfer from Southern Arkansas, made a big impact in his first year as a Gent, leading the team with seven wins and finishing second with 71 strikeouts. Senior Jeremy Hadley (4-2, 5 saves, 3.62 ERA) will move from the bullpen into a starter's role this season. The right-hander enjoyed a successful 1993 campaign after setting the Gent single-season record with five saves and looks to keep that success going as a starter.

Kirk Williams also returns to the mound for his final year and will be the Gents closer this season. Freshman Mike McConnell will play a big part on the staff after taking a medical redshirt last year. North Louisiana native Trey Culverhouse will also see time on the mound and in the outfield in 1994. Culverhouse, a high school standout at Sibley HS, transferred to Centenary from Northwestern State and will be a welcome asset to the team. Newcomers Shawn Mahoney (Lenoir-Rhyne, Plano, TX) and Ryan Lawrence (C.E. Byrd HS, Shreveport, LA) will also be integral parts of the pitching staff this year.

THE INFIELD: Solid defense will be a key for the Gents success in 1994 so the return of three starters here is a load off Rathbun's mind. Seniors Brian Stier and Darren Rounsaville will both compete for the starting nod at third base. Stier, the team's leading returning hitter and a TAAC Player of the Year candidate, batted .335 last season and set the school career record with 37 doubles in only two seasons. Rounsaville hit .260 last season and provided some clutch-hitting for the Gents at the TAAC Tournament. Senior catcher Gabe DeLaCruz is a rock behind the plate and started all 52 games last season. He hit .235 in 1993 but caught fire down the stretch to help propel the Gents in the post-season. Ted Gardner played in 27 games last year but looks to be the starting shortstop this season. Newcomers Danny Caballero (DeAnza JC) and Sonny Gaea (American River JC) should also be key ingredients in the infield. Caballero, a junior from San Jose, CA, gets the nod at second base while Gaea will start at first. Rick Barry, a teammate of Caballero's at DeAnza JC, also joins the team and will see time at first base as well as DH. Returnees Kenton Watson, Jonathan Chamberlain, Brian Kelly and newcomer John Jenkins will also challenge for playing time.

THE OUTFIELD: Here is where Gents were hit hardest, losing all three starters. Tom Meyers (Lincoln Land JC) is penciled in as the starting centerfielder. The Springfield, IL, native is an excellent defensive outfielder with a great arm. Jeff Wiese (Southern Arkansas) will also see time in the outfield while David Turkoly (Paris JC) is slated to be in right field. Newcomer Jeff Hogan (C.E. Byrd HS) is a promising young player and will add depth.

ON THE COVER

Senior co-captains Brian Stier and Gabe DeLaCruz will welcome new Gent Head Coach Wayne Rathbun back to his alma mater in 1994. Stier will close his career as the all-time Gent leader in doubles (37 to date) while DeLaCruz provides a solid foundation behind the plate, catching all 52 games last season

HEAD COACH WAYNE RATHBUN

When Coach James Farrar announced his retirement in June of 1984, he looked to Andy Watson, one of his former players, to succeed him as the Gents skipper. So, when Watson announced his retirement in May of 1993, it came as no surprise that he would look to one of his former players to take over the reins of the Gent Baseball program. The search ended quickly when ex-Gent great Wayne

Rathbun accepted his first collegiate head coaching position and became the 12th Centenary manager in Gent history.

Rathbun came to Centenary in 1981 as a walk-on out of Shreveport's Woodlawn High School. A four-year letterman, Rathbun is ranked in the Top Ten of nearly every Gent career offensive category and earned All-Trans America Athletic Conference honors as a catcher during his sophomore and junior years. He was also named to the All-TAAC Tournament team during his sophomore season.

After his graduation from Centenary in 1985, Rathbun became an assistant coach at Northeast Louisiana under longtime Indian head coach Lou St. Amant.

Rathbun returned to his high school alma mater to coach baseball in 1989. During his four years at Woodlawn, his teams posted an impressive 70-34 (.673) record and won the District 1-5A championship in 1992. Rathbun was named the All-District and All-City Coach-of-the-Year that same season. Among his most notable players there was Tyrone Frazier who was drafted in the sixth round by the Kansas City Royals in the 1993 draft.

Rathbun, 30, is married to the former Monica Murray of Little Rock, AR.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Trans America Athletic Conference will again be the site for exciting college baseball as the 1994 season begins.

The TAAC will welcome new members to the conference in the form of Florida Atlantic and Campbell in 1995. The Owls will compete in the Eastern Division along with Florida International, Stetson, 1993 TAAC Tournament Champion Central Florida, and the College of Charleston beginning in 1995. The Western Division consists of Centenary, Samford, Southeastern Louisiana, Mercer, and Georgia State. The Fighting Camels will also begin conference play in 1995.

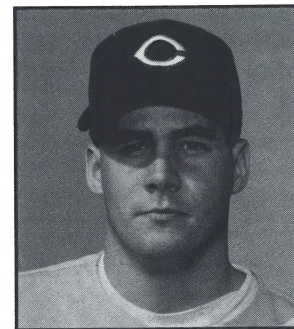

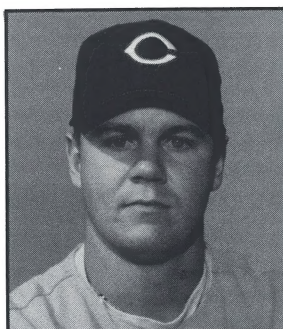

Each team will play home and away three-game series with their divisional opponents. The top two teams in each division will compete in the conference tournament at the site of the TAAC Western Division champion. The four meet in a double elimination format to decide the tournament champion.

From there, the 1994 tournament champion will host the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) champion in a best two-out-of-three series with the winner of that series advancing to the 1994 NCAA Tournament. This play-in format will only last for the 1994 season as the TAAC regains its automatic bid status in 1995.

SUPPORT STAFF

CORY ROGERS

Cory Rogers is in his first year as the Centenary Sports Information Director after serving five years as the student assistant SID.

Rogers oversees the publicity and promotions for all 14 NCAA Division I sports at Centenary and also serves as the Compliance Director for the athletic department.

As an undergraduate, Rogers was the baseball and soccer contact and was awarded the "Ace Higgins Award" for being the top student assistant SID in Louisiana as a senior. His multi-sports media guide for the men's and women's soccer teams was named best in the district and ranked 16th in the nation

Rogers, 23, is a native of Shreveport and a 1988 graduate of C. E. Byrd High School. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

JEFF CONRAD

Jeff Conrad begins his first season as the Centenary Baseball SID. The junior liberal arts major spent his first two years as the Centenary Gents soccer trainer.

Conrad will assist with all sports in the SID office but serves primarily as the soccer and baseball contact. He has also done color commentary for the Centenary Basketball team.

A 1993 graduate of C. E. Byrd High School, Conrad, now 20, worked closely with the football, basketball and baseball teams.

YANCEY NOLAN

Yancey Nolan begins his third season as the Centenary Baseball trainer this season. Nolan, a native of Monroe, LA, and a 1990 graduate of Neville High School, was the football trainer for Coach Charlie Brown there. A senior accounting / business major, Nolan, now 22, works closely with the soccer and basketball teams over the year.

A member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, Nolan plans to graduate in the fall of 1994.

1993 IN REVIEW

If the 1993 Centenary Gents had to be compared to something, a train would be the best object. Like a train, the Gents started out slow but was almost impossible to stop once they got rolling. Centenary won seven games last year in which their opponents scored first and made a tremendous comeback after a terrible start. Whether you are talking about games or the entire season, the Gents tended to start out slow but always finished with a flourish.

The Gents sprang out of the gates stumbling and bumbling their way to a 2-10 mark in the month of February. After splitting a season-opening doubleheader with Lamar, the Gents embarked on a four-game losing streak that finally ended with a 3-1 win over Arkansas-Little Rock.

Still, the Gents could not get started after losing to LSU at Baton Rouge and it did not look promising when the Gents were swept by Southeastern Louisiana in a three-game series at Centenary Park to open up Trans America Athletic Conference play.

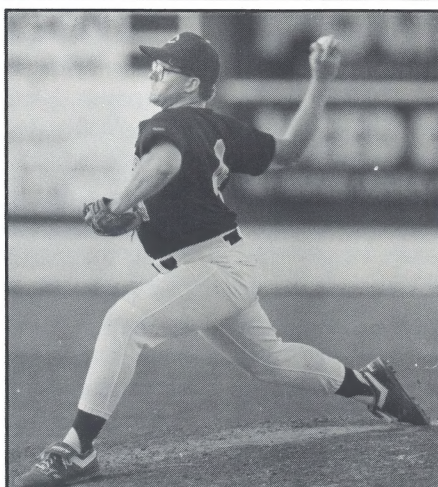

The Gent offense began to come together in March as they started the month winning four out of five games. In four of those five games, the Gents put at least 10 runs on the board. After winning two out of three from TAAC rival Georgia State, the Gents were at 2-4 in conference play. The offensive outburst continued against Mississippi as the Gents recorded 12 runs but could not stop the Rebels who squeaked past the Gents to a 13-12 win.

Undaunted, the Gents went on a four-game winning streak that included a sweep of TAAC foe Samford. Tom Schneider opened that series for the Gents and set the tone for all the games as he pitched six innings and struck out 10 Bulldog batters in winning his third straight game. For his impressive efforts, Schneider was named the TAAC Pitcher-of-the-Week.

While Schneider was taking care of business on the mound, junior third baseman Brian Stier was making his presence known with the bat against the Bulldogs. The Bossier City, LA, native had his best career day in the final game of the trifecta, going 4-5 with 4 runs, 6 RBI, and two homerun blasts. The Gents closed the month sweeping conference rival Mercer and routing Stephen F. Austin 16-5. When the smoke had cleared, the Gents had gone 11-4 overall, 7-1 in the TAAC in March and were now standing at 13-14 overall, 7-4 in conference.

April started out slow as the Gents were swept by Sam Houston, but the Gents rebounded with a five game winning streak that included a three-game sweep of TAAC foe Georgia State that put the Gents at 18-16 (the first time they had been over .500 all season) and more importantly 10-4 in the TAAC.

After travelling to Hammond, LA, and losing the first game of a three-game series to Southeastern Louisiana, the Gents rallied to win the final two games of that series. Carter Maw picked up a win in the second game, improving to 7-2 on the season as the Gents stood at 12-5 in conference.

After whipping UALR 7-5, the Gents headed to Birmingham, AL, to face Samford. Like the SLU series, the Gents dropped the first game but stormed back to win the series. Schneider won his sixth game in seven decisions in hurling a 2-0 shutout while senior righthander Jason Beauchamp ended the series with an 8-1 win for his third straight win.

April would close with a two game losing streak against intra-state rival Northwestern State and Mercer, and May did not start off promising as the Gents lost their second straight conference game to Mercer. The Gents stormed back with a 17-1 rout over the Bears as Beauchamp won again and senior outfielder Jason Parker put on a hitting exhibition. Parker went 4-5 with 3 runs 2 doubles, 2 homeruns and 9 RBI's to earn TAAC Player of the Week honors. The Gents would suffer a 18-3 loss to LSU, but it was no matter as the Gents would head to DeLand, FL, to challenge for the conference crown at the 1994 TAAC Tournament.

The Gents opened the tournament against the host team Stetson. After falling behind 3-0, junior DH

Darren Rounsaville, who filled in at first base after regular starter Brett McCabe was injured before the game, put the Gents back in the game with a two-run double. The game went into the tenth inning when junior catcher Gabe DeLaCruz's double scored Tommy Jones and gave Centenary a 5-4 lead. Junior reliever Jeremy Hadley came in and stopped the Hatter batters to preserve the victory.

The Gents would lose to Central Florida 5-2 the next day but rally and eliminate Stetson from the tournament with a 14-4 win. Beauchamp won his fifth straight while junior outfielder B.J. Pasquel and DeLaCruz led the Gents with three hits apiece.

The Gents were in the TAAC Championship round and, with a 5-3 victory over Central Florida, were one game away from the title. McCabe and Pasquel again led the offense with two hits as Hadley recorded the win. Unfortunately, it was not to be for Centenary who fell in the championship game against Central Florida and were TAAC runners-up for the second straight year.

Still, the Gents had a successful year after a dreadful start. The Gents went 25-15 after February and completed their sixth consecutive season over .500. Four seniors ended their Gent playing days: Beauchamp, Parker, Tim Kroeker, and Tom Tallach. Centenary also lost pitcher Schneider and first baseman McCabe to the Montreal Expos and Chicago Cubs, respectively. Like a locomotive, the 1993 Centenary Gents baseball team will be remembered as one that started slow but was difficult to stop once it got going.

DID YOU KNOW IN THE LAST TEN YEARS THAT CENTENARY BASEBALL HAS:

- Posted an impressive 176-89 (.664) record at Centenary Park and an even more remarkable 93-34 (.732) mark at home in the last five seasons.
- Recorded 288 wins against 237 losses (.549) overall but in the last six years the Gents are 187-134 (.583) in all games.
- Made its impact felt in the Trans America Athletic Conference, going 91-65 (.583). Their last two seasons have been their most successful in the conference as the Gents have worked their way to a 27-12 record (.692) and two straight appearances in the TAAC Tournament Championship game.
- The magic number for runs scored per game is five for Centenary. When the Gents score at least five runs in a game, they are an astounding 234-74 (.760) over the last decade. 1993 was the Gents most successful year in this category as they won 23 of 29 ball games for a percentage of .793.

ABOUT CENTENARY COLLEGE...

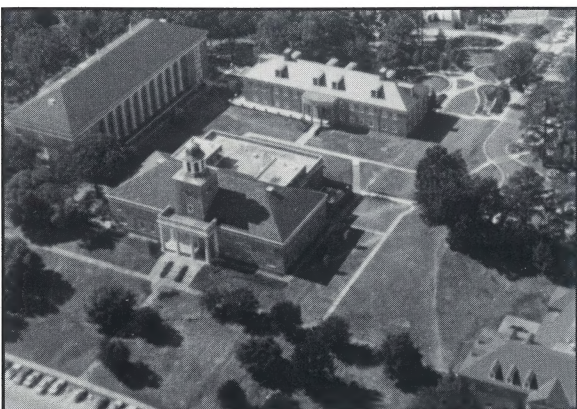

Founded in 1825, Centenary College is the oldest private liberal arts institution west of the Mississippi. Centenary provides a superior education for students capable of intellectual leadership and for those who can benefit from study in an academic community where excellence is encouraged and individuality is respected. Centenary places emphasis on preparations for various professions. The college is an institution of the United Methodist Church.

Centenary boasts a student/professor ratio of 11 to 1 for 1110 graduate and undergraduate students, while classes rarely exceed 30 in popular introductory courses. Centenary is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The college offers the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Music degrees in 37 subject areas and broad ranges of programs in a variety of pre-professional and interdisciplinary fields. Recently, a Centenary education was recognized in "Money's Guide to the Best College Buys" as the 22nd "best buy" in the U. S. based on quality of education and competitive pricing.

Shreveport is located on the west bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. The metropolitan area has a population in excess of 300,000 and forms the geographical, cultural, and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex. Centenary is located two miles from downtown Shreveport and is widely known for its natural beauty and stately Georgian architecture.

Centenary is a charter member of the Trans America Athletic Conference (est. 1978) and sponsors 14 men's and women's intercollegiate sports. Centenary sponsors basketball, baseball, soccer, cross country, tennis, golf, and rifle for men. For women, the sports include soccer, cross country, volleyball, gymnastics, tennis, softball, and rifle. Centenary is the home of current NBA great Robert Parish, PGA star Hal Sutton, and former Olympic gymnast Kathy Johnson. In the 14-year history of the TAAC, Centenary has won 10 conference championships. The Centenary Athletic Department was the recipient of the Jessie Fletcher Award in 1983-84 for the TAAC's best all-around program and has been runner-up in the years 1987-88, 1988-89, and 1989-90.

An award-winning educator with a keen interest in leadership and strategic planning was named Centenary College's 34th President in 1991.

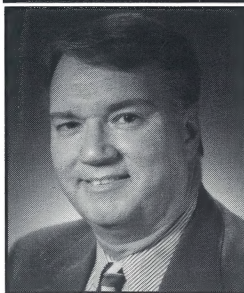

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab came to Centenary from the University of South Carolina where he was Executive Vice President for Administration and Associate Professor of Education in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies. He has taught graduate courses in leadership in higher education and institutional planning and research and is credited with the establishment of a strategic plan for the total University system. Prior to that, Dr. Schwab served 16 years at Guilford College, a private college in Greensboro, NC.

Dr. Schwab holds the Doctor of Education degree (1978) from Indiana University, Master of Education degree (1972) from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro and the Bachelor of Science degree (1969) from Purdue University, where he graduated with honors as the 1969 Outstanding Senior.

Dr. Schwab and his wife Pat (who also has a doctorate degree in education) are the parents of three sons: Kempton, Carlton, and Christopher.

Tommy Vardeman

Tommy Vardeman is in his first year as the Athletic Director of Centenary College, but has been an important part in Centenary athletics by serving as the head basketball coach for the past five seasons.

The Center, TX, native came to Centenary in the fall of 1979 as an assistant basketball coach. After spending ten years as an assistant/associate coach here, Vardeman earned his first collegiate head coaching position at the end of the 1988-89 season.

Since then, Vardeman has posted a 58-56 (.509) career mark as well as earning Trans America Athletic Conference Coach-of-the-Year honors after earning a TAAC Championship in 1989-90 and a second-place finish in 1990-91.

His success, though, is not restricted to the court. The Gents basketball program was recently recognized as being one of only 14 Division I schools in the nation with a 100% graduation rate for the 1983-84 and 1984-85 freshmen classes.

This past summer, Vardeman was named Centenary's Athletic Director after Walt Stevens announced his retirement.

Vardeman and his wife Sharon have two daughters: Julie and Jennifer, both of whom are Centenary graduates.
